

A very warm welcome to the Anglophone Section!

New Parents' Meeting

September 2nd, 2019

Agenda

- The Anglophone Section at the Cité Scolaire Internationale

Julie Mortimer - Acting Head of the Anglophone Section

- APESA (Association des Parents d'Elèves de la Section Anglophone)

Lara Bonucci - President

- The Welcome Committee

Lisa-Marie Bouzigues

The Anglophone Section at the CSI

- Section within a French state/public school
- Who's who in the Section
- Our teaching methods
- Examinations
- Extra-curricular activities
- Communication

The Anglophone Section

- One of nine international Sections within a French state/public school

What does this mean?

How does this work for the students?

How does it work for parents?

Who's who in the Section

- Senior Management Team

- Acting Head of Section - Julie Mortimer

- (Replacing Mr Rob Miller)

- Language and Literature Coordinator - Nicola Hill

- History/Geography Coordinator - Kat Weinert

- Primary Coordinator - Eve Bellanca

- Administrative Team

- Elsa Labrosse - HR and Finance

- Ruth McKain - Administrative and Finance Assistant

- Tom Badou - Administrative Officer, IT equipment

Who's who in the Section?

- Teaching teams

- Language and Literature - Nicola Hill, Moira Brun, Lorna Cassan, Francesca Doggart, Anna Coghlan, Karine Empana, Valérie Héné, Laura Kincade, Linda Quilici, Emily Rozé, Sarah Whittock-Judge

- History/Geography - Kat Weinert, Alan Geary, Laura Kincade, Neil McKain, Ciaran Quinn, Sean Rattos, Emily Rozé, Sarah Whittock-Judge

- Primary - Eve Bellanca, Katrina Fullerton, Ceilidh Higgs, Sarah Joannès, Eléonore Payet-Reason (Teaching Assistant)

Who's who in the Section?

- Other posts of responsibility

Language and Literature -

Nicola Hill, IGCSE coordinator, Deputy Subject Leader OIB, British option

History/Geography

Alan Geary, OIB Subject Leader, British option

Kat Weinert, OIB Subject Leader, US option

Who's who in the Section?

- Other posts of responsibility

University Guidance

USA and Canada - Kat Weinert

UK - Anna Coghlan, Francesca Doggart, Elsa Labrosse (logistical support)

France - Alan Geary

(Europe, rest of the world - Julie Mortimer)

IT (Pedagogy)

Emily Rozé and Neil McKain (Secondary)

Katrina Fullerton (Primary)

Our teaching methods

- We practice student-centered, Anglophone pedagogical methods throughout the Section whether in Primary, Language and Literature or History/Geography
- Creativity, Collaboration, Communication, Critical reflection for global citizens of the 21st Century

What this means

- IT

How this is used in the classroom

Examinations

- French: DNB at the end of 3ème (Y10, Gr 9)
- IGCSE in Language and/or Literature in 2nde (Y11, Gr10)
- OIB (international option to the French Baccalauréat) - UK or US option in Terminale (Y13, Gr 12)
- Excellent results
- Students go on to prestigious universities worldwide

Extra-curricular activities It's not all hard work!

Primary, College and Lycée drama clubs and performances, arts and crafts...

Primary, College and Lycée Tech/Coding clubs

Basketball, table tennis

Humanitarian Club, Green Club

Model United Nations Club

Ilymun <http://ilymun.org>

...and more.

New parents' meeting September 2nd

Communication with the school

- French side in Secondary: communication through Pronote, *Vie Scolaire
- French side in Primary: through your child's home/school book Carnet de Liaison or French teacher's email
- Anglophone Section: through the office for finance and administrative queries

elabrosse@csianglo.org - Elsa Labrosse

tom.badou@csianglo.org - Tom Badou

rmckain@csianglo.org - Ruth McKain

Communication with the school

- Your child's English teacher

initial+name@csianglo.org

- Acting Head of Section - Julie Mortimer

jmortimer@csianglo.org

Welcome Booklet

Please look at our website www.csianglo.org regularly and particularly the 'Welcome Booklet' which has a wealth of practical information on the Section and wider school environment:

WELCOME BOOKLET 2019-2020